

सत्यमेव जयते

Embassy of India
Baku, Azerbaijan

Embassy of India, Baku, organised an online event on the occasion of the grand finale of the 150th Birth Anniversary celebrations of Mahatma Gandhi on 02 October 2020. In his address, Ambassador Shri B. Vanlalawna spoke about Gandhiji's five principles of non-violence - respect, understanding, acceptance, appreciation and compassion. He also highlighted the various events organized by the Embassy during the 2-year celebrations of the 150th Birth Anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, including the planting of trees, commemorative stamp issued by 'Azermarka', cycling event organized by the Mission, painting exhibition on Gandhi etc.

Today's event included a short talk on 'Global Gandhi' by Prof. Mark Juergensmeyer, Distinguished Professor of Sociology and Global Studies, University of California, and singing of popular songs of Gandhi Ji by children.

Address by Shri Ambassador Shri B. Vanlalawna

Talk by Prof. Mark Juergensmeyer

Singing of songs by children

सत्यमेव जयते

Embassy of India
Baku, Azerbaijan

Singing of songs by children

